Classroom VPA 106

Desktop Computer

1st Turn on computer. (Computer is located in the lectern)

2nd Select the ON button (located on the lectern). "The screen will roll out and the data projector will turn on. There is a delay of 15 seconds before you see an image on the screen."

3rd Select PC1

Laptop Computer

1st Turn on the laptop.

2nd Connect your laptop video cable to the Video port "label COMPUTER". (located on the lectern.) Audio: Connect audio cable to the audio port. Audio port is next to the Video port.

3rd Select the ON button. "The screen will roll out and the data projector will turn on. There is a delay of 15 seconds before you see an image on the screen."

4th Select PC1

* If you don't get an image from your laptop, on your laptop keyboard press (fn) + (CRT/LCD). To get the desire look, repeat by pressing (fn) + (CRT/LCD) keys. The combo (fn) + (CRT/LCD) keys may vary with laptop manufactory.

DVD/VHS

1st Select the projector ON button. (located on the lectern) "The screen will roll out and the data projector will turn on. There is a delay of 15 seconds before you see an image on the screen."

2nd Turn on the DVD/VHS. (located on the media rank) Put the media into the DVD/VHS device.

3rd Select Video 1 (located on the lectern)

Note:

Make sure the Audio Power is on. This will power the audio system.

Adjusting the sound volume button is located at the media rack "Outlaw device".
        Press button : Input + up/down to select your chooses
        PC1: Video 1 | PC2 & iPod : Video 2

Image button will adjust the projector for improved image quality.

Select OFF button. This will turn off the data projector. (located on the lectern)

Updated on: 10/22/2009